Dear Mr. Brian Lamb,

I would like to thank you for helping me to participate in the Close Up Washington, D.C. Program from March 20-22.

My experience in Close Up has been invaluable. I had the chance to examine the workings of the federal government first-hand as well as to participate in the democratic process.

By arranging to have members of the media and government meet with students, Close Up has narrowed the gap between what is taught in the classroom and what goes on in the political world. I strongly recommend that other students should be given the same opportunity to share in the Close Up experience. Once again, thank you.

Sincerely,
