Dear Brian,

I saw your book report segment
yesterday on C-Span?

It took me back in time to my young days when we went through those trying and volatile times!

I was in the civil rights voter registration movement. I'm 78.

Brian here is a storm about bias

the author talked about. It still happens today, whenever Afro American go into a store, except if it happens to be Cypriot!

It happened to me and my daughter at Wal Mart's new store. They followed us and poked at merchandise pretending to fix the wheel. I hate that store.

So here is an article in our paper about bias. Sincerely, Matthew Todd
