I saw your last short speech, on the program about digital TV & I was glad to hear your strong stand for C-Span. You've worked hard for it, took no money from the Gov't for which you should be congratulated.

But, I'm disappointed that most of your guests, on Book Notes, are Liberal Left Sew. John Lewis was on & then on "About Books" you had Harry Reid on touring Searchlight. It seems like we're constantly being saturated with everything liberal. If the Dems take back the House, they can thank you. It's not fair.
