Dear Elaine

11/5/93

In the U.S.A. an invitation to the White House is not a royal command, its just an invitation. If a decline is construed as making a point, or giving an opinion, then so be it. If Rush was making a point, he made it for me also. I cast my first vote at age 21 in 1950, and had to wait 40 years until talk Radio to hear people expressing the views I have held my whole life. As for getting tired of listening to Rush, Michael Reagan, Ron Romney, Mark Scott, David Newman, Never! I waited 40 years. For them, like Moses looking forth the Promised Land
