

Sept 29, 1993

Dear Mr. Lamb:

Usually I enjoy all your programs, but the Journalists' Round Table that included Eric Breindel was a grizzly experience.

Don't you pay attention to your guests? Breindel was shown

"nodding off" several times.

Considering his relative youth,

I don't think he was eligible for the Brent Scowcroft award that Maureen Dowd bestowed on Warren Christopher for falling adup in the front row during Pres. Clinton's health reform speech to Congress.

To a former New Yorker, Breindel's behavior was familiar and more ominous.

Sincerely,

A solid black rectangular box redacting the signature of the letter.
