Dear Mr. Lamb:

Postage for letters to you are becoming expensive - I have, therefore restricted my future correspondence to include at least two complaints.

It has not been easy to restrain myself, as your inclusion of Rush Limbaugh on a recent show hit the absolute zenith in pathetic programming. This extreme-right windbag has NOTHING to do with anything faintly resembling the criterion for which your program seems to be striving. Would you have put on P.J. Barnam on to discuss world issues and events? Barnem with a wild-eyed, fanatic right bias, I might add. I understand the number of complaints on Limbaugh (His Porcine Presence) have broken records - so I'll restrict myself to sending you a copy of a letter I sent to Public T.V. when they put Limblob on one of their shows.

Today I awoke to seeing on my T.V. screen, the image of a pale, mousy looking little creep - sort of Reed Irvine like - and I knew you all were at it again. Sure nuff this clod turned out to be Tod Lindberg, another (the ten thousandth?) member of Washington Times that you have flogged on your program. You know in your heart that this rag is not a legitimate newspaper, but rather the organ of the Asian fascist, foreign mystic, Rev Moon.

Ask Lindberg one question for me. I am aware there are several really true believer Moonies on the Times staff. My source tells me that a far greater number of them sit on the editorial staff - as opposed to the news room. I certainly never in my life would consider going through the indignities of lining-up to call into your show - but you almost got me to try today. Do yourself a favor, and stop cow-towing to Purdin, every time he calls to beg for a spot on your show. If it's not bias your showing, it's just plain bad judgment.

A reprint of my letter to PBS on Limbaugh:

"MacNeil/Lehrer News Hour:

The inclusion of Rush Limbaugh on your 13 March program places your heretofore conspicuously outstanding program in the common dumpster, where the rest of the pedestrian nightly T.V. news presentations reside.

The hot air of Representative Guy Vander Jagt has to be taken as the everyday fare of a struggling politician. The rantings of an obnoxious talk show buffoon, however, should be restricted to the AM radio band - where the sorry, dim-witted audiences of blabber-prattle shows gather.

The only possible value of your exhibiting Limbaugh was to reveal the sweating, porcine image he presents. There are admittedly a few callings for size 20 collars in our society, but I doubt if Rush, the Pillsbury doughboy, would make it as a lineman in the NFL. Well maybe as an OFFENSIVE lineman.

Please do not pander to sensationalism; maintain the high standards of your program. I was truly shocked by this shrill skill's appearance on your usually uniformly balanced program.

Sincerely:"

Mr. Lamb, don't you, or your personal staff, make any effort to answer any mail? At least the form replies from Ms Kiley is an indication that the mail is getting through - but little else.

Sincerely: [REDACTED]
