Dear Brian,

This is a belated but no less sincere thank you for Booknotes. I met you when you were in Phoenix last year promoting the book's publication. I was unfamiliar with C-span at that time and didn't read Booknotes until a couple of months later when I found myself recovering from a badly broken leg. The rigors of healing took most of my energy, but Booknotes's concise essays were one of the few things that held my interest and satisfied my curiosity.

I just wanted to thank you for a book that not only helped me through a very difficult time but also opened new interests for me as well. Now I'm a regular viewer of C-span's Booknotes and weekend Book TV. I hope there's a Booknotes II in the future and that you'll once again visit Phoenix.. Sincerely [redacted]
