I watch C-SPAN because it is a very informative cable channel. I enjoy the sessions for the House of Representatives where we as cable subscribers can keep tabs on our elected officials to what they do and say while in front of the cameras. On the live call-in programs, I love the many different people with their own personal and political view, even though sometimes I do not agree with them. I enjoy the live coverage of subcommittee and committee meetings where domestic, foreign, and legislative policies are discussed and voted on. One committee meeting that I watched and enjoyed was on the issue of discussion of the Global Effects of Nuclear War. Even though I disagreed with some of conclusions that were reached, I did find it informative from a survival aspect, - me being a survivalist.

I also enjoyed greatly, the "Capital Steps." I found the comedy team taking serious issues and adding some humor to them. In conclusion, I would like to say that I enjoy C-SPAN alot and winning or not winning this contest, I will continue to watch C-SPAN.
