Dear Madam a Sir:

I am just one of probably millions of viewers who are enjoying your American Presidents series. I missed the one of George Washington in whom I have a particular interest, because my ancestors,

[redacted] was one of his Generals in the Revolutionary War and there is a statue of him in Statuary Hall in the Capitol.

My main purpose in writing you is to inquire as to whether you have any printed materials referable to them excellent programs. I am not a teacher but very interested in studying Revolutionary war history.

Thank you very much. Your programs are indeed excellent — and a fun way to learn history.

Sincerely,

P.S. If you have a mailing list, I would like to be placed on it.

Thanks you!
