

Dear Brian Lamb:

June 29, 1993

Your crocodile tears over not being able to get Noam Chomsky to speak on C-Span are not very persuasive. You feature endless parades of right-wing extremists and hawkish New Republic types but almost never find anyone even remotely on the left.

Have you tried Ramsey Clark as an expert on Iraq? After all, he did interview Saddam Hussein not too long ago. How about David McReynolds? Even Jesse Jackson might be available.

Why do you keep your work for the Nixon administraion such a secret?

[REDACTED]
New York, NY 10010

NEW YORK NY 100 06/29/93 OCR#5

USA 19

002594 JUL 293

C-Span
400 North Capitol Street
Suite 650
Washington, DC 20001

