DEAR C-SPAN

I would like to bring to your attention your 1st vote segment.

To date you have produced 5 1st voters, who in fact will not be voting in this years election because of age, and yet they have professed they would vote for Clinton.

I as a listener find this a bias on your behalf, when you have 3 separate lines for call in listeners.

Sometimes you have three, four and five 1st time voters in a row who say they are going to vote Dem.

I don't know who came up with this format, but this is not a totally unbiased format.

I've also noticed there is more and more time allowed to talking heads and less time for callers.

Give us a break!! we can find this on many other stations. We want to hear what real people across in danger of becoming just another T.V. channel.

Please review your format and get it back To The people instead of personalities -
