Dear Sir/Madam,

We are much dismayed here in Northern California that our newspapers have no specific program schedules for your extraordinary series: "Life Portraits" on all the presidents of the U.S. for the next 41 weeks.

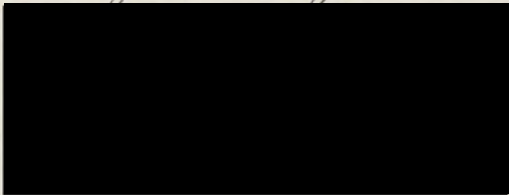

The projected times are always given in E.T. rather than P.T. and we are setting our tape recorders at 5 or 6 AM to be sure we don't miss anything. The amount of material seems to vary depending on the individual president and it is hard to identify what parts are repeated.

A couple of times I have been up until almost 6 A.M. selecting different topics on the program for each president being featured on a particular day!

We would be most grateful to have a program guide with specific information regarding the times and lengths of each section of the compiled materials. It would be most helpful, too, to know when something is being repeated.

This is a formidable project that you are bringing to us and we are impressed. Thank you so very much.

Yours truly,

Chico, Ca.

P.S. I don't have a computer.
