Dear Mr. Lamb,

I am a first time faxer. I want to thank you for your years of service. I also want to tell you how much I enjoyed the Booknotes Anniversary Special. I commend you and your editorial staff. I thought the quick cuts of many authors brilliant and effective. Also, I was happy to see you and your producer in the 'behind-the-scene' segments. And well played on showing the C-SPAN segment. It showed a wonderful sense of humor on everybody's part. I must confess to visiting my local bookstore the very next day and ordering seven of the books featured. Alas, I need to catch up on my political reading.

I am interested, as I expect many others are, in purchasing a tape of the Anniversary Show for my video library. Is this possible? If you could fax me [REDACTED] information on this or write to:

I would be grateful. Keep up the good work. I find all your programs balanced, entertaining, and informative, but you already know all this. Thanks again.

My Very Best Wishes,
