Dear Mr. Lamb:

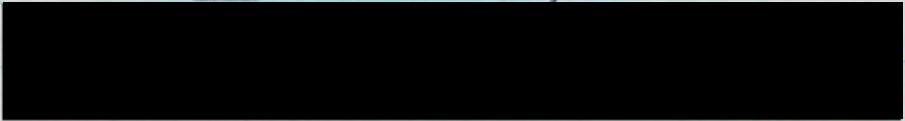

I have been watching C-Span since cable TV came to Fremont several years ago.

I especially enjoy your "Book Notes" on Sunday evening (and catch it again Monday at 7 A.M. so I get every word). I enjoy one more than the other. The interview with Malcolm Browne re: "Muddy Boots - Red Socks" was truly fascinating.

I also enjoy the early morning call-in programs with the newsmen. I have been trying since before the Gulf War to get through, but have never made it.

At that time I wished to say I did not approve of us going into that
war for the rich oil men,
and I still feel that
way. I finally have that off my mind!
Thank you.

Sincerely,
