

Since the conservatives have been screaming impeachment of our President since the day he took office years ago I only think its fair to hold them responsible for the house manure going on directly or indirectly in smearing our President. What about this Arkansas group that well financed trying to get the Clintons for years "Conservative's Invoking executive privilege is the only way to stop an out of control independent counsel.
Send Ken Starr to Iraq to investigate Saddam Hussein and let him ~~stand~~ bark up the tree and leave my hot dollars alone.
Thank You
