Attn: Mr. Lamb

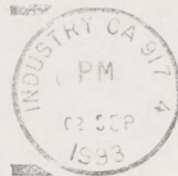

I watched C-SPAN last week when you had a Republican commentator from Crossfire and a Socialist and said you were opening the phone lines only to those who are pro-Clinton (which you had a hard time finding). One caller stated that you carried too many Republicans and anti-Clinton coverage. How can that person say such a thing. You are a mouth-piece of the Democratic Party. You can turn on you station almost anytime and someone from the Clinton administration is on your station spinning the lies of this administration. I very seldom see any Republicans on except maybe at 4:15 P.M. (California time) after first having a Democrat at 3:30 after the news from Moscow.

All I can say is you're not what you ^{claim} can to be and it's about time you re-evaluate your position.

Sincerely,

Diamond Bar, CA 91765
