C-SPAN comes to WEST PALM BEACH Cable Viewers

--Network's unique programming now offered by Group W system--

WASHINGTON D.C.--C-SPAN's public affairs programming is now a permanent part of the program line-up offered to 50,000 West Palm Beach cable subscribers.

Chuck Blaine, manager of Group W of West Palm, announced on February 13 that C-SPAN has been assigned to channel 27 (N) of the cable system, airing each day from 7:00 pm until 6:00 am. Mr. Blaine added that the system hopes to eventually move toward offering C-SPAN programming 24 hours a day.

C-SPAN specializes in televising public events in Washington and from around the country in an uncut "you are there" format. Coverage includes live debates from the U.S. Congress, important press conferences, and daily call-in programs where viewers can "talk back" to their elected officials in Washington.

Coming up on C-SPAN this month are two events of local interest: On February 21st at 9:00pm est, C-SPAN will air a National Press Club Newsmaker Breakfast conference on the 15-state southern presidential primary. And, February 23 through 25, Florida Governor Bob Graham will join the nation's other governors for an annual Washington meeting of the National Governors' Association. West Palm Beach cable subscribers will be able to watch Gov. Graham in action when he addresses the NGA Committee on Human Resources on "Refugee Assistance and Immigration Reform" televised by C-SPAN on February 24th at 11:00 pm.

Across the nation, more than 23 million households can tune in to C-SPAN's public affairs programming; Group W Cable of West Palm Beach joins more than 2,000 cable TV systems that are affiliated with the C-SPAN channel.
