Dear Mr. Lamb:

Pastoral expletives and four letter epithets cannot describe my disgust and contempt for your not providing the American people coverage of the Ross Perot appearance before the Senate Banking Committee. This is the second time a "camera has not been available". Your being around entoproctus politicians so long has caused you to lose your dignity, your credibility, and the respect of your viewers.

You must have been the little boy in the story where the little boy asks his mother, "Mamma, are sheep the dumbest of all animals?" To which the mother replies, "Yes, my Lamb."

Sincerely yours,

Dallas, TX. 75228
