Gentlemen:

How can Prof. Anita Hill be satisfied, according to the front page of today's New York Times?

Either she or Judge Thomas is a criminal - namely lying under oath. Since the majority believes Judge Thomas according to the polls, it shows clearly that the majority believes Anita Hill is the criminal. I hope the case does not rest here, since no one should be subjected publically or in any shape or form, to such humiliation, and not be vindicated. I believe Judge Thomas has an obligation to the American public to make sure that justice is served and Anita Hill not be allowed to shine in the eyes of the ignorant.

I have been the victim of sexual harassment, but out of self-respect I chose to leave my employment and sever all ties, even though I was extremely vulnerable as the sole support as a single mother. Anita Hill's non-action at the time and action to maintain contact and friendship with her alleged harasser portrays a person of total contrast to the real Anita Hill, if such be the case.

The frustrating part here is, they both came accross so well, and I, as a woman and a victim of sexual harassment, wanted to believe Anita Hill, but I just simply couldn't.

Nothing was solved here, because after everything is said and done it seems like it is business as usual for both parties, and it is sad to realize one more time that Americans just love to air dirt rather than cleaning the air.
