Dear Sirs:

Thanks for the splendid coverage of the Republican Convention. I tried calling in to thank you by phone but couldn't get through, which is understandable, as there must have been thousands of people wanting to call.

I'm especially encouraged by the unapologetic way your leaders, like Pres. Reagan, Vice Pres. Bush and others acknowledge that you are a nation under God, and that the Republican party stands for so many of the things we cherish so much ourselves, like: strong families, freedom of voluntary prayer in school, pro life, abhorance of practicing a homosexual life style faith in God, and asking Him for wisdom in ruling your great nation.

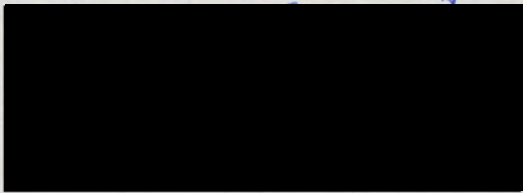

I'm so thankful that we here in Canada (a land that we are also proud of) have a country like the United States, as our neighbor.

To think that we have a 5000 mile common undefended border, and have lived at peace with each other for almost 200 years, is something to be thankful for.

Thanks again C-Span.

P.S. I would very much appreciate the souvenir booklet you offered on your program.

Yours sincerely

May God Bless you and your nation.
