Dear Sir:

Last Friday, 10/28, I watched a program ^{on C-Span} airing the pros + cons of Prop. 187 which is on the ballot here in Calif.

Ted Green, opponent to the proposition, was so rude + displayed a lack of civility that was most unlike any other guest I've seen on C-Span.

The purpose of this letter is to register a complaint about Connie Brod who was moderating. She allowed this man to filibuster, interrupt call-in folks + generally cause the gentleman attempting to present the con side to be ignored, as a matter of fact one of the few times he was able to speak the moderator called time on him!

A call-in person from Twain

Harte, Galt, chastised him about his conduct & he exhibited a petulant sneer & continued to hog the spotlight.

I would suggest you review this tape & if you agree w/ my observation take steps to circumvent this kind of moderating, or rather lack of it.

C-Span is the greatest thing in the TV world & I for one hope the excellent standards are maintained.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
