Dear Mr. Nofziger,

Your comments at the C-Span televised news conference this morning were very interesting.

Over the years, although I have not agreed with your far right views, I believed you to be honorable and intelligent. Two recent events have altered that opinion.

Your appearance today, and especially that very crude, unkind and immature comment about "how the Clintons met", was very telling
- not about the Clintons, but about you.

It has also come to my attention that your ~~political~~ career started when you turned in your high school teacher to the House Committee on Un-American Activities during the McCarthy years. This teacher, after losing one job, was re-instated and has lived to see the success of many of the other students she has been able to teach. She is evidently greatly beloved and revered by all those students.

Mr. Nofziger, my respect and admiration for you has evaporated. Your whole career seems (from beginning to end) to be a show of extremism and mean-spiritedness.

If the (not so) loyal opposition continues to show this kind of smallness, it will soon lose its momentum, and maybe that's okay.
Yours truly,
