To Whom This May Concern:

I would be remiss if I didn't write to tell you how much I enjoyed the President's program. It was beautifully done & very, very educational. Unfortunately I have come upon C-span quite late (my own ignorance) - my friend came upon your President's program & told me I caught my first one John Tyler. From then on I was hooked, saw them all & thought your reruns the ones I missed. For years I have been yelling about the waste on TV not knowing what a superb program you people had. Since I am an avid reader I also thoroughly enjoy "Booknotes". Brian Lamb is the best interviewer, bar none on TV.

For 18 years, as a volunteer, I did what I called "Book Talk" - "Book Talk" at the United Presbyterian Home in Woodbury, N.Y. My group consisted of ages from 50 to over 90 - men & women from all walks of life. I read whatever I felt would be of interest to them & we had a talk. During the 150th Centennial year I asked them if they would care to know about the President, from Washington, etc. They all said yes & it was received with much enthusiasm. I then asked them if they would like to know more about the first Ladies - again they all agreed. I had a talk using my books, preaching in the library & whatever else I could get my hands on. I learned so much & remembered so much from your programs. I always believe the researcher has the best time - took what they learn. I certainly could have used your material at that time. At that time the President they most admired was

Franklin Delano Roosevelt & the First Lady (I was surprised was Bess
Tremmon - I thought they would pay Eleanor Roosevelt.

I just thought you would be interested in knowing how I did this presentation so many years ago & how well it was accepted.

God Bless C-span & all it's wonderful participants!

Sincerely yours
