

Dear Sirs,

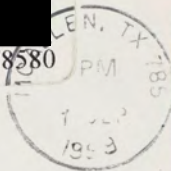

Sept. 4, 1999

I was dismayed by two things on C-SPAN this Saturday morning. First was the performance of Jennifer Maddox of Scripps - Howard News Service. She spoke in the voice of a pundit, not an objective journalist. She was ill informed on several subjects; she made no distinction between allegation and proven fact; and she was opionated as one does not expect of a reporter. I hope she will not be asked back as a journalist. The other source of my dismay was the two Y2K alarmists you had on with no one to offer balance. Many people may be able to watch only on weekends and could not see your earlier guests Y2K reports.
