Dear Marge,

As I watch the presidential program this A.M., I wonder if the announcer's voice I hear might be yours. The line was busy when I called to order products, so I will tell you and give you my credit card info at the close of this note. Wow! What a pleasant surprise! There you were after the program in person telling of the contest. Did you hear me say, "Hi, Marge?" Now I have a face to go with the voice and person who so graciously was instrumental in sending the rules for my

June, 1939 class's 60th Reunion Since we were known as:

The Presidents or Pres'ers — not Tigers or other — these golden oldies were impressed and delighted. I am going to try to have a photo enlarged, so you can see a ruler I was holding and telling about as I made a presentation at the gathering. I told them the importance of a thank you note and of C-Span's very generous gift. I hope to enclose a newspaper article, a class photo and one where I am holding a ruler and note as the artist in the enclosed article explains his painting. Interestingly, the night of the reception, C-Span was airing the Warren G. Harding program — quite a coincidence.
As the sign above the class
old program planners have a sense of humor.

I want to order:

34th I Buried in Grants Tomb?

The Presidential Code and a C-Span mug and Tote bag.
Charge to Cilitank

Thank you again for everything, and it was great seeing you. God bless and Class Pres.

Thank you again for helping make this reunion

WARREN G. HARDING
HIGH SCHOOL JUNE CLASS OF 1939 held their 60th (and final) class reunion in September at the Elks Club.

The reunion weekend began with an evening reception at the Elks Club. The following morning, a trolley tour of the city took place with Wendell Lauth, local historian, as the guide.

Class members and their guests returned to the Elks Club that evening for a banquet.
Following the dinner Bill Dailey introduced [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who presented prints of the painting The First Packard Car Show by the artist Daniel G.
Mathey to Tom Richardson, class president; Cornell Corsatea, reunion committee chairman/treasurer; [REDACTED] and Frances Keyser Ganard, reunion secretary, for their years of service to their class.

[REDACTED] also introduced the artist Dan Mathey, who presented personally made brass plaques to each of the three recipients of the prints, commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the first Packard car.

The members of the June Class of 1939 will now have luncheons on the third Thursday of each month at noon at Abruzzi's Cafe, 422 on Youngstown Road. The first luncheon will be held on Jan. 20, 2000. No reservations will be needed, but for more information, call Bill Dailey at [REDACTED]
