

Apriint: - W hen the people greeted James Baker in Albania, I think they were singing,
"Santa Claus is coming to town"

JUL 17 ANS'D Kennett Square, Pennsylvania 19348

cc: S. Trahern ✓

Mon. June 24, 1991

003053 JUL 1991

Dear Brian,

I watch 'C-Span most every day, and enjoy the call-in shows, in particular.

However, there are times, I believe, you cut off some people, too soon. There have been some very intelligent people who could teach us something, and I know you feel that you should give most people a ~~change~~ to speak their piece, or ask their questions, but I feel there should be some who should be given a little more time.

Another point, I'd like to make. Do you think, at times, there are politicians who call in and in a subtle way, are plugging their Party? One morning on a talk show, (or call-in show,) I heard someone who sounded like Tip O'Neil, who called in.

Another point. The music is still too loud, especially during the "House" meetings.
In an apartment, I tune in the speaking, and the music in between blasts out.

B.D. This pen stinks!

C - Span

400 N. Capitol St. N.W.
Suite 650
Washington, D.C.
20001

Att: Brian Lamb

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Kennett Square, Pennsylvania 19348

