

Contact: Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

C-SPAN LOOKS INSIDE A WASHINGTON, D.C. LAW FIRM

Washington, D.C., March 10, 1993--On Saturday, March 27 from 5:00-9:00 PM/ET, C-SPAN takes an in-depth look at a large D.C. law firm in a special edition of "America and the Courts."

The special includes a video-vérité tour of the facilities at Shaw, Pittman, Potts and Trowbridge, and several interviews with attorneys working at the firm. The founding partners give their views on the role of law firms in shaping national public policy; young associates talk about the recruiting process and their day-to-day work; the managing partner discusses the process of "rainmaking" and client relations; a trial attorney describes his work on and off the courts.

In taped Viewer Call-ins interspersed throughout the program, legal reporters Judy Sarasohn of the Legal Times and Kim Eisler of the Washingtonian magazine provide an overview of the practice of law in Washington.

"America and the Courts," C-SPAN's weekly look at the people and issues shaping the American judiciary, airs every Saturday at 7:00 PM (ET).

C-SPAN is available in 58.7 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.

--30--

Contact: Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

C-SPAN LOOKS INSIDE A WASHINGTON, D.C. LAW FIRM

Washington, D.C., March 10, 1993--On Saturday, March 27 from 5:00-9:00 PM/ET, C-SPAN takes an in-depth look at a large D.C. law firm in a special edition of "America and the Courts."

The special includes a video-vérité tour of the facilities at Shaw, Pittman, Potts and Trowbridge, and several interviews with attorneys working at the firm. The founding partners give their views on the role of law firms in shaping national public policy; young associates talk about the recruiting process and their day-to-day work; the managing partner discusses the process of "rainmaking" and client relations; a trial attorney describes his work on and off the courts.

In taped Viewer Call-ins interspersed throughout the program, legal reporters Judy Sarasohn of the Legal Times and Kim Eisler of the Washingtonian magazine provide an overview of the practice of law in Washington.

"America and the Courts," C-SPAN's weekly look at the people and issues shaping the American judiciary, airs every Saturday at 7:00 PM (ET).

C-SPAN is available in 58.7 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.