

Sept. 22, 1997

Dear Mr. Lamb,

This is just a brief note to let you know how very much my husband and I enjoy Sunday nights because of Booknotes.

Reading a book after one has spent an hour talking with the author is a different experience than reading alone.

But I am finally writing because of a neat coincidence. Rev. Gomes has been on a few radio shows & I already have read the book. So Sunday after the show my husband teased, saying for once I didn't need to run to Thrane Shop on Monday! But the surprise came Sat. at Barnes & Noble in Bethesda. I was looking for a copy of the Good book for my meeting but could not find it. The young man said it was now on the "Bookster table"! Indignly I asked if it were near W. Chambers.

O.B.K

Your show has really developed my own reading, + I was a reader before Sunday nights.

My favorite show, since I am a Library of Congress employee, was the January show at the library.

Thanks again for Sunday nights.

Foyer of the Library of Congress

Photograph @ 1964 Fred J. Maroon

AUTUMN PUBLISHING, INC.

MANASSAS, VA

NC11-150

10/27/64