Mr Lamb.

I am a C-Span addict, and would like to say I appreciate C-Span very much, also your non-bias attitude while conducting sessions with your guest.

Mr Lamb I have included a letter, which I have sent to all major T.V. news stations and news papers, although this letter has no bearing with C-Span, I watch C-Span more than any other station, and I would feel guilty if I did not send one to you.

I do have one complaint with C-Span, Mr Dole is one Senator of many, and for the life of me I cannot understand why, when Pres. Clinton makes any kind of address on C-Span you immediately put Dole on to contradict every thing Pres. Clinton says. As I stated earlier Dole is only a Senator of many Senators, and I think this is very unfair to our president.

Sen Dole just doesn't seem to get it, I believe he tried for the presidency 2 or 3 times I did not vote for him as a Republican. I certainly would not vote for him as a Democrat. Dole is one of the reasons I have changed parties.

Nx DS1

I have several Republican friends that are getting a little disgruntled the way C-Span is pitting one against the other. (Pres Clinton & Dole)

A lot of the things that are shown on C-Span are excerpts that were said earlier by Dole in the Senate, why is this being done?? it seems C-Span picks certain things from Dole's speeches to discredit the president, this is very unfair.

If C-Span thinks this is appreciated by viewers not so: After Dole follows Pres. Clinton's speech trying to discredit him, on viewers call in the next day. either I have missed something or my hearing is bad. I never hear Republicans call in to praise Dole, in fact he is rarely mentioned if ever mentioned at all by Republicans.

It seems C-Span is trying to portray Dole as a co-president opponent.

Will you please return his proper status to a Senator, as he is nothing more than that.

Also leave all his Senate speeches where they belong in the Senate house.

President Clinton is trying to do something even if you think it's wrong. Come on give Pres Clinton a break, don't you think enough is enough.??

Sincerely

I am sixty-two (62) years old, and have voted Republican since old enough to vote. Two weeks ago I could not get to the Court House fast enough to change my party. I am now a proud Democrat. I have finally opened my eyes to exactly where the Republicans are coming from.

In all my years I have never seen the Democratic party go on National TV and grade a president in his first few months. The Republicans sounded like spoiled little children, because they didn't get their way or should I say the White House. I think this was totally asinine.

I think Senator Dole is a very bitter man in fact I think he is pathetic. I also think "IT'S TIME FOR HIM TO GO".

The reason Dole, Gramm of Texas, and Micheals are fighting President Clinton's package is very simple their own pockets. I will use Mr. Bush as an example. When Mr. Bush was campaigning on a train, before a female reporter got on with him, she said she was not allowed to ask any questions about the Iran Contra Scam. After boarding the train, she asked, Mr. Bush is it true you and Barbara Bush made over a million dollars in 1992, he said well yes, I guess that's about right, she then asked Mr. Bush, do you think it is fair you only pay 16% taxes, he said, yes I do, she asked why do you think this is fair, his answer was because that is the tax code, he then turned and went inside the train.

It's a well known fact that Dole, Gramm and Michaels are millionaires, now what do you suppose they pay on their Income Taxes??

If the Republicans are so concerned about the middle class, all of a sudden why didn't they fight as hard to find a solution to stop the companies from moving over seas, also using our tax dollars to move them as they did against President Clinton's package which they literally blew out of proportion. It was their pockets they were worried about and that they might have to pay their fair share of taxes for a change. The jobs that moved were middle class jobs. They also tried to break the Unions which support the middle class. Now you tell me where the middle class fit into their agenda??

It seems the Republicians want only two classes of people in America the rich and poor, and they almost succeeded. Thank God for Clinton.

If we have another Republican President I am afraid the middle class will be totally abolished, if you do not believe this ask all the millions of once middle class standing in soup lines or sleeping in the streets who have lost their jobs and homes.

Another reason I believe this is true, Dole said, I will support Clinton in ~~Bosnia~~, he said, I will support President Clinton with Yeltsin and Russia, anything to do with foreign countries he supports, but when it concerns mainly the poor and middle class Americans, it's philibuster time.

I am a middle class afraid of the soup lines if the Republicans return to the White House.

The comments I made about Mr. Bush can be verified by C-Span and MTV as both stations aired this tape.
