Dear Brian:

Usually, I don't get to watch C-SPAN in the morning, as at age 73 I still play tennis for two hours along with my workouts. Being it poured rain yesterday I decided to stay home and use my own exercise equipment and listen to C-SPAN.

Your Historians and Journalists were most interesting, as most of your guests usually are. As in the past, I tried over and over again to call all three phone numbers listed on the screen, without success. It is most frustrating, as I hear repeated references to President Johnson's near miss during the only other Impeachment trail and the forced resignation of Richard Nixon. Never do I hear you or your guests interject the crimes against the State that took place under the Reagan/Bush administrations, involving Ed Meese, CIA Director Casey, Oliver North, as well as the two Presidents. All of these mentioned were involved in the Irangate and Iran-Contra scandals. Special Prosecutor Walsh, despite all of the lying, finally found the notes taken by Weinberger which he repeatedly said he never took. Meese allowed North two days to shred documents before even going to his office. Had CIA Director Bill Casey not died the scandal would have been full blown. I believe it was Tom Wicker a respected author and journalist from the New York Times that stated Reagan's crimes surpassed those of Richard Nixon. With the Republicans trying their damndest to get rid of President Clinton on charges not even approaching the seriousness of Reagan/Bush and Nixon I cannot believe these are passed over completely when being discussed by your guests. To get rid of Walsh and the crimes, Bush simply applied the Presidential Pardon. Your radical conservatives would die if that was dealt with as much as the Johnson/Nixon cases. Do you have an E-mail number as I cannot send a message by Internet on my computer which I am in the process of changing.

Sincerely
