

C-Span,

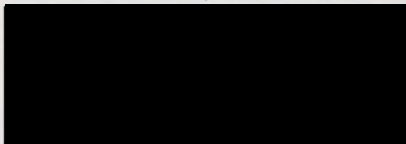

I watched part of the Sunday gay show you aired. I try to be open minded, but if that is an example of what gay people expect us to tolerate, they have a big problem.

I am very disappointed that a class company like C-Span would televise such a vulgar display.

Its sad that 1% of the population can get this much coverage.

I'm only glad my kids were not watching your show on Sunday.

Sincerely
