

Side #1

Regarding the debate that aired in the Redding Calif. area Sunday evening, 8-12-93, regarding censoring violence and nudity, dirty language, ect. for Movies!

This is my opinion on it.

I am 56 yrs old and I've seen alot of the above situations.

However I'm still not a killer, rapist or exhibitionist

We as a country are only free if we don't have a bunch of laws shoved down our throats.

Just recently we had an election to ~~ban~~ ~~ban~~ ban smoking. It passed. Reason to Second hand smoke kills so many people a year.

For our own good this law was passed. Agree?

Then why hasn't alcohol been banned???

It kills more people in so many different ways.

To numerous to list here.

So my question is: If laws are passed for the good of the people, why is alcohol legal?

This just one example of unbalanced legislation on the move.

are we all suppose to make these kind of sacrifices because someone decides to have a child? All of a sudden they get morals, Want to ~~appear~~ pretend they had not been aware that these things had ~~not~~ been going on when they where children?

Don't let them get ~~mixed~~ ⁰⁰²⁵⁸⁴ poor parenting 993
mixed up with dictatorship.

Thank You
