Dear Mr. Lamb,

I am sure you do your home work, therefore my inclusion to you of my letter to Adam Pertman of the Boston Globe who was on your program and referred to two articles in the Boston Globe. I think the enclosed material is pertinent.

As in the Boston Globe article, opinion were expressed where I would prefer that newspapers should be reporters of facts, information and have the opinions in the editorial section only.

Incidentally, I received a phone call from Jerusalem that CNN had broadcast an interview with the nephew of the person who owned the property sub-leased to the Jews, to the effect that "if his uncle had know his attorney was dealing with Jews he would never have made the sub-lease." If this broadcast is used in the United States would you please see that I get a copy for which of course I will be glad to pay.

Very truly yours, >

Dear Mr. Pertman,

Your C Span responses to Brian Lamb showing the headline in the Boston Globe issue did not indicate if you wrote the article.

Perhaps the enclosed material is worth your reading, I am sure the Boston Globe is not dedicated to anything but truth and facts...and might be interested in the enclosed.

I hope to include the Boston Globe in addition to the above 5 publications if I am able to publish my next issue.

If you have any further interest in this matter I will be glad to send you additional material from my 40 years of activities in Israel...construction and publishing always with my own money as an independant.

Very kinde-vours.

As a reader of The Times for more than 50 years, I am completely dismayed at your editorship of Anti-Israel editorials, cartoons and material...completely ignoring FACTS, TRUTHS, INFORMATION.

e.g. Today's "THE SYMBOLISM WAS ALL WRONG." and your unsigned editorial: "whatever the ruling of the court, the damage done to Israel by this provocative act, ranging from freshly embittered relations between JEWS and NON-JEWS in Jerusalem to the very credibility of its top leaders is far-reaching." As obvious anti-Israel criticism as Conrad's cartoons.

If your reporter in Israel had wanted information, the actual documents, a copy of part of the lease herewith, was available to him. If you supported the United States government spending of enormous sums of money to tear down the walls of segregation you would not make these selective anti-Jewish statements.

I again enclose my response to last week's articles by Daniel Williams also critical of Israel where I asked that you talk about Jordan's Hussein treatment of Holy places during 1948-57 occupation...where he destroyed every synagogue, dug up cemeteries using the headstones for latrines and chicken coops.

Would you prefer Muslim actions when they are in control or the courts Israel has gone to?

Very truly yours,
