

In unity, "let Freedom
Ring."

January 20, 1993

Dear C-Span Administration and Most Capable Personnel,

It gives me great pleasure to write this letter of thanks to you for the professional and heart warming coverage of the Clinton week. Thank you so very much.

I tried to watch the networks but the deluge of commercials and the personal comments of the "experts" raised my blood pressure and adrenalin.

Susan Swain is as capable of intelligent and succinct evaluative comments as any of the media spokespersons, yet she kindly refrains from comments. In watching, I eventually turned to C-Span full time.
I do not particularly care for personal comments from newpersons as though I could not think for myself.

My thanks to the 185 plus persons to whom the word "work" was most operative, I assume, looking at the fabulous results.

The photography was clear, precise, colorful, and the zooms were terrific. Thanks.

The sound was so good I felt to be a part of the inauguration ceremonies even though I was in San Antonio. Washington DC is no stranger to me. The quiet photographic T.V. walk from site to site was refreshing. Thank you.

The variety of scenes in the inaugural makes verbal descriptions a problem. I really appreciate all that the C-span personnel have done to accomplish so fine an inauguration coverage.

The words of defense for Chelsea are so much in place that a real challenge was sent to the media to guard its tongue in regard to the vulnerability of this young girl just entering her teens. It would be truly immoral to pick at her. Her peers spoke out about this cruel treatment. I sincerely hope that C-Span will elaborate on this crucial theme and set the standard for real, internal change and ethical controls within the medical profession. The profession separates the professional from the non professional establishments. Now is the time to separate the man from the boy and be counted!

I hated to leave the parade but I volunteered to help a local nursery school caught in need of 2 teachers who both were suddenly ill. It was with GREAT reluctance that I said yes. My heart was to watch the C-Span presentation of the Inaugural Parade. I am a patriot. I LOVE a parade.

Thanks to each of you, the 185 invisible heroes who made today THE FINEST. God bless you

P.S (1) It is 1-23-93 and I am listening to Helen Goldsby singing "Precious Love" a repeat program of 1-19-93. She is truly a diva in bud. I wish her every blessing in her singing career. I am a singer.
I watched the outrageous proceedings of the U.S. Senate as they drilled Zoe Baird. It was 8 PM EST and she was obviously so tired she was searching for words yet they showed her no mercy. She had to ask for a 5 minute recess.
Even her elemental needs were not honored. What a bunch of selfish males our Congress has. And these men will LEAD our Nation?
Horrors.

And this good, capable and most able woman was forced to step down because of a legal infraction? We should be ashamed of ourselves as a nation to make a mockery of JUSTICE.

Who will have the moral courage to investigate our senators' wives' practices in their domestic lives? If one has the guts to do this, at least 75% of them will have to admit to illegal aliens employed in their service, for whatever motives: Compassion for the alien, cheap boss for cheap labor, favor to a needy friend's friend, too lazy/cheap to investigate employees' background, and etc! I am irate to see so much hoopla over a past incident, because she is a woman! God have mercy on us for such injustice. We see a male Senate acting like peacocks only to expose their own prejudice and hidden foul play.

I watched the Congress on your C-Span the morning of January 21. What a joke. Those who spoke did so

PS(3) To a just about empty seated House. This isn't new but it's time to stop This empty seated and empty headed fulfillment of duties on the part of our House.

Thank you, C-Spon, for showing us ever more clearly how MUCH still has to be wrestled with to bring a "New Spring" an "inclusive" breeze into our government and our country.

I was appaled at the comments of the people calling in about Zoe Baird, their prejudice, their harsh judgments, their collous treatment of her before a hearing! What a bunch of dog-eat-dog citizens we have become. God help us all.

Yes, Zoe Baird is still THE capable person to be attorney general. I deeply regret that she got shafted for what others do secretly and deliberately.
Thanks for excellent coverage.
