

Mr. Brian Lamb,

Being a faithful watcher of CSPAN^{#1} & ^{#2}, I certainly feel that I have the right to put my "two cents worth" into the latest coronation of Abe Lincoln.

I notice that your "experts," self-proclaimed experts, elitists from Harvard, Yale, Princeton, & other knowledge of the life and times of Abe Lincoln have a inherent automatic "spin" that is about as good as Bill Clinton's boys have today.

Basically, I think the distorted "spin" on Lincoln's bad deeds is the fact that northerners (Yankees) never like to admit they are or were wrong about the things Abe and his boys did before, during, & after the Civil War - to us southerners.

The slavery "spin" is quite amazing. Everyone agrees that slavery was inhuman, but as Wilfred Brimley (the Quaker Oats man) would say - "It was the right thing to do" at that time. It was as normal as going to the grocery store. We didn't invent slavery and it would have also ended do to developing technology.

It's too bad we didn't have a NATO back then. We could have certainly used their help to get an aggressor (Yankees) with great odds out of our country.

O. Amurpho

I wonder why countries such as Korea, Vietnam, & Africa after being divided & having their names changed to South Korea, South Vietnam, & South Africa seem to be a much preferred area than the North?

Same as in the U.S.A. The Yankees (carpetbaggers) are flooding into the South so fast that already we are degraded by their local voting patterns. What obnoxious people these strange looking & culturally inept creatures are. Now I know what the foreigners meant when during "after World War II" they referred to Americans as the "Ugly American". Our South today is "the place to be." The culture is totally different - thank goodness!

Brizn Lamb, if you will take the time to read the enclosed articles, it will help you with your questioning of the Abe Lincoln "experts" & enable you to give the "other side" of the story. The revisionists are better than Shakespeare.

One day on C-SPAN I introduced your guest Ralph Hollow to a small article in our local paper about a Chinese guy that had been appointed to some position of leadership in the democrat party's money raising committee. I said "that's about as corrupt as it gets." I was insinuating... "What are the Chinese getting in return?"

The next day, all the newspapers almost quoted me. I guess they were all turned in to the great C-SPAN with Brizn Lamb at the helm - the day before.

The previous sentence about revisionists & Shakespeare rang so true the other day. The "spinners" on the Balkan war were found out to have outright lied about the size of the ethnic cleansing number of tanks destroyed the real reason we didn't use the helicopters, and God knows what else.

This "Spinning" should concern everyone because if there ever is a Nuclear attack; would you believe what the govt. would be explaining to you?

the control of the news is mostly "spun" out of the north east and is still - more than ever - managed by Jewish liberals.

The control is slowly changing, but by the time the needed change would come, the USA will not be recognizable as a culture for which it was created. What a historical shame. I think I'll write a book and title it "The Brazilearning of America."

The revisionism in schools is in "full swing." It's so bad that Cleopatra is now black. Any idiot knows she was from Macedonia.

Best Wishes,

A C-SPAN Junkie

P.S. See you at one of our NASCAR Stock Car Races. We don't have any slaves there - but I understand they are getting ready to ~~send~~ send us some.
