

C-Span
400 N. Capital St.
Washington, D.C. 20001

C-Span
307 Pennsylvania St. ?
Indianapolis, In 46204

Tacoma, WA 98445

10/25/92

Dear Sir:

Your C-Span show is outstanding! Unfortunately, it has been impossible for me to present my views because the telephone lines were too busy. So I decided to write with the hope my political position would be aired. Of course that would literally would be impossible because of the time that could be spent on each issue; however, I'll do my best to give a synopsis.

I have always been philosophically conservative. The years following World War 2 have demonstrated that both 'Democrat and Republican parties' are like two trains running on parallel tracks, for the same destination. The party reaching that destination first is the one who wins the election. the destination is the 'New World Socialist Order.'

Not one of the three major candidates mentioned anything about the issues critical to sluggish economy. We are being subjected to a grand deception orchestrated by the news media and the federal government, with the exception of conservative organizations and think-tanks that maintained vigilance. President Bush, sends up the largest political smoke screen. Family values, the issue about who to trust, and character assassinations, to name a few, have been an exercise in overkill, rather than performing like professionals. The president was better ^{this time} but far from a Patrick Henry! A travesty, at best, which the whole world watches:

continued:

2

I submit to you, the reader, a debate must be controlled in the time the debate is to be presented. The Lincoln-Douglas debates lasted over three hours a piece. The number of debates made is not known; however, they had no loudspeakers. Several thousand people watched and there was no moderator. Recently, there must be five or six issue-substance debates lasting at least 2 hrs ^{each} with nothing orchestrated, it would be dynamically better than the circus presented.

Perot, was my preference based on his candor. His verbal barrage during the debate is like a gunnery officer giving the command to, "Fire for effect!" before the target was bracketed close enough to do the job better.

continued:

3.

No doubt, Perot made Clinton and Bush realize there may be more surprise verbal attacks coming from the third party that may impact close enough to reduce their ranks. Yet Perot is not my man either. He admits he will and his choice of vice president amused me Perot wasn't the man. I have been guilty like many in the past to vote for the better of two evils. (now three evils). It is my conviction, that the only way the trend can be averted with reasonable accuracy is for the American voter to vote completely from his heart. Voting for the better of two evils simply allows the president to count on a block of people to give him support so he can continue with his internationalist activities. For example, Pat Buchanan support.

I am casting my vote for Howard Phillips and Albion Knight Jr., of the Taxpayers Party. They have focused in on everything critical to our great nation. It is a shame that they haven't received the lime light they deserve. I pray you will be able to invite them to your TV program. (They are presenting what I believe to be the classic true conservative position. Sincerely,