Mr Lamb: I watch C-Span often & enjoy usually. Today with Brian York (Amer. Spect.) you took a call from a Southern man interested in letting a flag fly in his state that meant much to him. You badgered him in asking what was the Southern way? The war was fought for states rights; slavery was on its natural way out if you would study history. We continue to lose our rights because of a tyrannical federal government; we are a socialist gov't with a "minority group" still anxious to foment hatred & disunity by calling this group Afro-Americans when most don't know where Africa is. I weep for "E Pluribus Unum" You could do better, Mr. Lamb. Respectfully [Redacted]
