

LAGUNA BEACH, CA 92677

January 25 '92

Dear C-SPAN-

I have the feeling Congress should subsidize C-SPAN to a greater extent.

One thing which gives me this that is the simplistic replies concerning write-in comments by viewers.

An example is included with this letter. Was your answer to the viewer really an answer to his comment?

I get the feeling you are all working under an overload. I consider C-SPAN an extremely valuable asset to the American people. Can't we organize a gigantic committee of viewers to write in, exerting pressure on Congress to give you the support you need your wonderful C-SPAN programming, I have a couple of questions I hope you can answer.
Yours - a concerned viewer.

During this period that Congress is in recess, I've hoped to see repeat broadcasting of some of the highlights of the 102nd Congress, first session. What can you tell me about your practice of Senate re-runs?

On a recent repeat of "An American Profile," Sen. Arlen Specter on the Thomas hearings said: "It's all on video tape; take a look." I'm unaware of the availability of the Thomas hearings on video. What can you tell me about that?

In addition to what I've mentioned above, I'd also like to see again the Senate Judiciary hearings on the Bork confirmation.

Gerry Sweet
Santa Cruz, Calif.

Editor's note: C-SPAN re-airs programming from time to time, but there are no immediate plans to re-air the Bork confirmation hearings.

Republican Congressional Committee, and Les Francis, executive director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee. The two will discuss the year's upcoming congressional races Monday, Jan. 20, at 6:30 pm ET/3:30 pm PT.

Mr. Abraham assumed the position of co-chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee in March 1991. For more information, call 1-800-4-A-REP.

ing into the second session of the 102nd Congress," said C-SPAN call-in producer

As Congress returns to session, Majority Whip David Bonior