Dear Mr. Lamb:

All of the other television hosts and/or hostesses pale in comparison with the way you handle your job at C-SPAN. At first, it bothered me that you are so sober but I guess this quality somehow makes things work so well. Even though you manage to stay on that neutral line, and this is necessary - once in a while you treat your audience to a smile. And this is great!

My special favorites are "Booknotes," "American Profile," and the Friday "Journalists' Roundtable." Among your most memorable interviews have been those of James Reston, Carl Rowan and H. Ross Perot.

Thank you so much for the professionalism which you bring to all of your C-SPAN work.

Thanks for listening.

Sincerely,
