

fill up, and it all began - almost at the start it was obvious to me he was a smooth talking corporate lawyer who could talk all around a paent, until you forgot what the paent even was - He said he served under W. French Smith and Reagan so that explains everything - no wonder Clinton took off for Tokyo its useless to argue with people like that -

The more he talked, the less I cared - its all big corporate money talkery.

However, the average person, here and around

Dear Brian;

I listened to every single word of the hearings yesterday - As a life long political devotée, due to being raised by a man who taught political history, who later served in politics, and knew everyone in the game I know a little bit about it - I saw the chambers

very smart nowadays just to break even -

Clinton is no better or no worse than any other male, in or out of politics, who cares whose bed he just got out of?
The whole thing bases me to death.
I do hope he can help the
