Dear C-Span Folks,

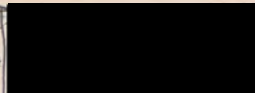

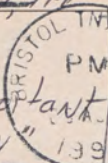

Thanks for being AN important link in the "Global Brain" (tele.comms.) I would like to see more programming of in-depth nature, for ex: RE. democratican in USSR. How much of this movement is AN outgrowth of the Nuclear freeze / environmental movement. ARE we not watching AN ANthropological adaptation to the planet Rather than political change. How much is attributable to the MONTICELLO Baby Boom generation?

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA

Home of Thomas Jefferson and a classic example of American architecture. The house is the product of Jefferson's genius and is unique in many features. This west front view shows the dome, which overlooks the garden, on this 700 acre mountain-top estate.
