C- Span : Wont you be sued by all the other TV Channels ?
Who can watch or listen to anything else ?

Since you are there in the place where the big decisions are being made.

What really sparks my interest, and I do mean Sparks-is this FACT.

Humanity is brain washed. Male leaders in religions and governments are using MIND control. I have been an observer on earth for 84 years and its my chief observation. Beliefs are based on what man, the male of our species thinks and believes. We can see what kind of social world it creates- what it has done and is doing to all humanity.

It needs fixin !

Why is there a gag rule where the males beliefs that are called religions are concerned. Male leaders that have based their beliefs on the TRUTH have nothing to fear where speech and press are free.

Lying male leaders do - is that why there is freedom suppression where the religions of men are concerned.

Open up on them and the name calling starts- it makes the religions suspect, as far as I am concerned. Why dont they want to be talked about Have the leaders lied to humanity and they dont want it to know they have ?

Why didnt the framers of our Constitution want a religion established?

Other countries have established religions but mans house of religion is so divided its made evident the leaders in that house do not know THE TRUTH- they are speculators that are guessing as to what the truth about GOD is Why can't the laws and commands in the Bible be used- judge the associated religions under them - so as to know whether the male leaders have based their beliefs on the TRUTH or NOT- Why not make use of laws- when it stands to reason the will of the God that some male leaders say they believe in was expressed in them. What I am leading up to is this-

Its about abortion - Anita Arriola was one superb speaker -
Guam, like Haiti have established religions.

When male leaders like the Pope, the male leaders in Catholicism do not want people to use birth control. Then all the social problems of Catholic people should be taken to the Vatican . Let the male leaders in that religion feel the weight, be more involved in solving the social problems that could be caused by getting too many people produced on any given area.

Load them all up and ship them over to the Vatican and replace that gift from the Catholic country, France over with them replace it with a status of the THINKER. That is what is really needed in the USA

I say that for this reason-

Man, the male of our species is a KILLER, we have his killing record in history books. he makes killers of his young males, gives them training in doing it. he makes them have so little regard for human life that they can do all the killing that has to be done to win his male fights for him he takes all the caring out of his young males that way.

He does it because he has male instincts, the same is true of sex- that his brain cannot control.

he is not civilized- he is a barbarian. Always has been from the days of Cain and Abel the human male has been a killer he is a mastercraftsman at creating HELL on earth and this God forsaken creature dares stand there, sit there, whatever and exposes his gall his nerve when he says to women that abort human life " THOU shalt not kill. "

This son of satan, this buck passing true son of Adam

How dare he do it !

Study the human male and learn the truth about him and and he cannot fill your mind with his male beliefs-

he experiences living as a male it gives him a male point of view that limits his social vision. he is not both sexes he is just one of them and his male point of view is not all there is

Woman has a fact finding brain of her own that can study the male and learn the truth about him. That is why he wants all human minds controlled by his old established male beliefs, like his male religions. I want the Bible associated religions judged under the TEN laws it stands to reason the will of this God was expressed in HIS law- the TEN that predate our Constitution. This God's will was done on earth when that lone ranging JEW that human male that had human needs, male instincts said that he did not come to DESTROY the law but to FULFILL IT. Its the truth that cannot be killed Christ made fulfilling the TEN laws his mission that got HIM killed because it exposed error in the ways of male leaders that were trying like men are, today, in their religions- to prove they have a right to hold the positions they hold be in control, control human minds and lives with their male beliefs

Beliefs that have never come close to getting humanities having peace- on earth insured, IN FACT the males religions have caused nothing but trouble they have made people suffer and die- like in IRELAND and the Middle East

When beliefs can make people suffer and die treat them like a disease

Damn men, anyway- if they think they are going to get away with saying to women that abort human life because male leaders are such poor social world managers

Its the reason why people use drugs become alcoholics, use tobacco - why we have gays and lesbians as many problems with sex- They are the scapegoats that keep attention centered off of the fact that the male leaders do not know how to manage human affairs- they cant admit it so they ppoint the accusing finger at all of the above. Nothing mus discredit the male leaders thinking.

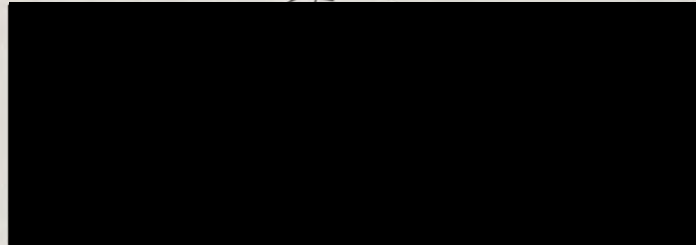

Roe vs Wade had better become " a shell "-

We, the women that find this having males that have done so much killing all thru history , from our species beginning , and his male religions have all been involved in doing it- - when the will of the God that some of them say they believe in was expressed in that law THOU shalt not kill "

What in hell does man think he is anyway
a privilged character in doing it ? Its offensive.

Lets drag his religions out in the open and examine them-its what its going to lead to- man got his foot stuck in quick sand
- thanks Roe vs Wade .

Sincerely,

When the male of our species stops being so afraid of human minds that he wants them all controlled by his male beliefs - When woman's mind is freed from male control, so she can express her female point of view as fully and as freely as the male has been expressing his for, so these many years - we might learn the whole truth about our species-

Some of us have to be covert operators- being overt would hurt too many innocent people- Oh , Lord make my typewriter break down like my Word Processor did - it got too hot.

What protects people from lying male leaders ?

The use of that word layMEN , INTERSTS ME_ ITS A PROPAGANDA WORD THAT KEEPS PEOPLE FROM RUNNING INTERFERENCE_ WHEN EDUCATED PEOPLE WANT THE UNEDUCATED PEOPLE TO BELIEVE THEY ARE " divine authority . " There is just nos use thinking any further because I know all there is to know about the subject. It blocks entrance, dams up thinking - prevents thinking about any given subject when educated people want any field all to themselves. It's understandable because getting an education takes lots of money - that in itself shuts lots of good minds out Its used in the males religions - by the male leaders Its a thought squelching word , that word laymen.

it reminds me of the fish and toad that puff themselves up to scare their enemies. The answers are not all in the books,yet-

Until the educators, communicators can overcome the great ignorance in male leaders that keep them believing in doing all the killing that is done in mans male fights . I am going to keep right on questoning male leaders intelligence, their male beliefs, their right to use mind control

Its a deplorable IGNORANCE that destroys the male leaders credibility.

Which comes first- the TEN laws or the Constitution ?

The Ten laws predate the Constitution- so I think we need a SUPREME court that is ~~not~~ interested in doing for the TEN laws,what the other Supreme Court does for the Constitution

When all the killing human males do in their male fights makes it so evident- male leaders believe they are above the TEN laws- Women will have to be the providers.

That law, that one law, THOU shalt not kill,could become a BIGstick in the hands of human females because All the killing that human males have done in their male fights, its recorded in history books - has broken that law to prove male leaders do not trust this God. they believe in some ' other god. " It destroyed God's law as far as men are concerned. The sin is mans- sin is transgression of God's law- where could you ever find any greater transgression that in all the killing men have done in their MALE fights- Thanks- Roe vs Wade for getting me to think along this line.
