

July 7, 1999 (S.W.)

Dear C-SPAN:

Thank you for your fairness in presenting both sides of issues. Especially appreciated was your interview with Robin Ried of the Confederate Museum in Richmond, VA. Because American History is written from the perspective of the victor, many people have formed the impression that Jefferson Davis was a traitor; yet the Supreme Court refused to try him for fear they would lose. Please invite the authors James Ronald Kennedy and Walter Kennedy of Who Jefferson Davis Right to your Book TV to discuss this much distorted issue? Thank you!

Booknotes

Wichita, KS 67218-4522

Kerr Hall Northeastern University 1898-1998

C-SPAN
400 N. Capital Street, N.W.
Suite 650
Washington, D.C. 20001

