Dear Mr. Lamb:

I was interested in Sen. Kohl's assertion that it was a shame that there were no black members on the judicial committee and that there should be. Sen. Kohl went on to say that was not controlled by the senate, only the voting could correct that problem. He was not asked why, of the twenty to thirty assistants sitting behind the senators, there were no blacks! Certainly that is a problem that is directly within his, and the other senators control.

I would be interested in your comments on this observation, and I would appreciate your posing this question to Sen. Kohl or any of the other senators on the committee.

It is always refreshing to view your program for its content and to be free from the partiality presented by most other programs of a similar nature.

Sincerely,
