

About Books:

13 Oct 96

I'm enjoying these programs-- selectively. It would help me to program a week ahead with my VCR if you gave the starting times of each lecturer, as you do
sometimes, but not always.

Instead of talks with librarians, I would prefer ~~some~~ more ^{with} those who are making books, or--especially
--those who are involved with making books on tape.

USA TODAY (10 Oct 96 p. D1)
says that spoken audio recordings ^{are} now in 11.3 million households.
An editor who reviews
audio books twice a month
is [REDACTED]

Library Journal
NYC 10011; fax [REDACTED]

Best wishes for continuing

ABOUT BOOKS!

eastchester ny 10709

O.B. [REDACTED]

ret. post. man.

CHS. NY 10709

C SPAN II
ABOUT BOOKS

400 N Capitol St NW
#650
Washington DC 20001

