According to Pres. Bush, Clarence Thomas is the "best person for The job". He is not.

However, The present travail which the entire nation shares is laid at The feet of The President and his staff. This is The team that gave us The Willie Horton Show, and now The Hill-Thomas spectacle. With consummate cynicism and neglect^{of duty}, he has created two adversaries, The cream of The black community, and The lesson we learn from this is not greater compassion for our black brothers and sisters, but more deeply embedded stereotypes and hate, Our center cannot hold.

No, Mr Thomas should not be confirmed, but it is too late, all the side issues are to the fore - abortion, pro-life, feminism, fundamental Christianity, date rape etc.

In conclusion, The entire panel of presiding Senators, as neanderthal a group as represents us, should be voted out of office.

Sincerely
