Dear Brian!

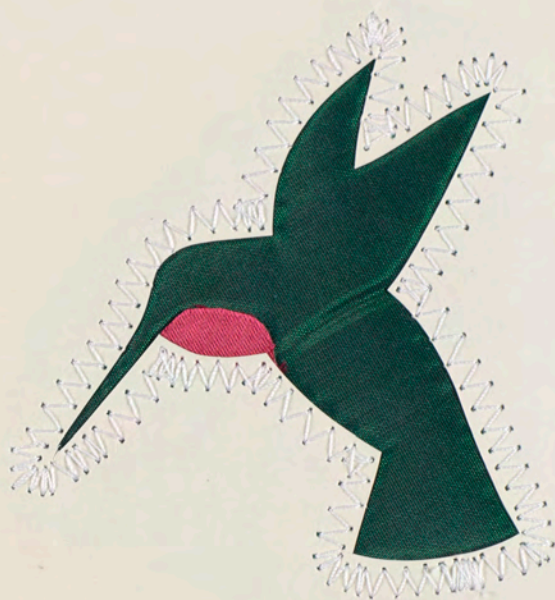

Did you know you have a "pat" question for anyone who brings up the CFR? Today you used it again. To your two morning guest, (one from the Times) May 17th you turned and said, "Have you heard that before?" As usual, no direct answer was given.

Even stranger and more blatant, when the same interview was repeated a little later I purposely sat through the entire thing so I could hear the woman ask the question again and learn where she was calling from. What happened, Brian? On the cutting room floor, I presume! We have a certain curiosity that should be satisfied. The more you (and others) withhold information the more suspicious we become.

There "aint" no Santa Claus but, I do believe, there is a CFR.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

Until Today, I had you & ESPAN on a very high pedestal — Sorry
