Dear Brian:-

I'm sitting here watching you and thinking I wish he were coming home to me when he gets off work. You would certainly be an easy person to love. You have the prettiest neck ties the blue ones match your eyes. I'm so proud of you. I keep myself up also. You do that in our family.

Bush is in Springfield, Mo. He has some stiff competition I'm afraid I'm not sure what to write but my feelings for you are changing and there isn't a thing I can do about it. I can play bridge, golf and Elbette or Lady Elk. Right now I just love to find someone to settle down with that I loved. Its tough living alone, people used to try to get along but, could care less any more. I met a man that I care about to back me tight.

When I wrote my profession I was thinking about the Business + Professional Club I meant occupation.

I will close + think what it would be like to see you and be with you. to know where I really stood with you.

Bye Dear Brian
