C-SPAN SIMULCASTS CLINTON'S TOWN MEETING NATIONALLY
--This Week's Town Meeting to Be Followed by Address to Congress Next Week--

Washington, D.C., February 5, 1993--On Wednesday, February 10, from 8:00-9:00 PM (ET), C-SPAN will provide live national coverage of President Clinton's Town Meeting, without commentary or editing.

President Clinton will spend an hour answering questions from live audiences in ABC's Detroit, Miami, Atlanta, and Seattle affiliates. Mr. Clinton will be on location in Detroit's WXYZ-TV studios, and will interact with individuals in the other three cities on the East and West coasts through uplinks from WPLG-Miami, WSB-Atlanta, and KOMO-Seattle.

The campaign-style interaction with the public will take place a week before the president gives an address on economic issues to a joint session of Congress which will air live on C-SPAN as well.

On Wednesday, February 17, starting at 8:00 PM (ET), C-SPAN will cover President Clinton's "Address to Congress," followed by the Republican response, open phones and live interviews from Statuary Hall in the U.S. Capitol. The program will re-air in its entirety at 11:30 PM (ET) for West Coast audiences.

C-SPAN is entirely funded by America's cable television companies to serve the public. C-SPAN is available in 58.5 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite.
