

The proceedings of the U.S. Senate are carried live and in their entirety on C-SPAN 2 when the Senate is in session.

UNITED STATES SENATE
LIVE

(Times and dates vary due to congressional schedule)

The cable industry created C-SPAN 2 in 1986 to broadcast the live sessions of the U.S. Senate in their entirety. C-SPAN 2's round-the-clock programming complements the original C-SPAN network by offering more viewing choices to cable TV audiences interested in public affairs programming.

For times and dates of congressional coverage, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN provides live gavel-to-gavel coverage of the U.S. House of Representatives when the House is in session.

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LIVE
(Times and dates vary due to congressional schedule)

In 1979, C-SPAN was created by the cable television industry to provide gavel-to-gavel coverage of the U. S. House of Representatives. In addition to the speeches and debates covered on the House floor, C-SPAN also broadcasts congressional hearings in their entirety, providing viewers with a close-up view of the legislative process in action.

For the times and dates of congressional coverage, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

Texas businessman Ross Perot takes questions from viewers during one of his appearances on C-SPAN's Live Viewer Call-In programs.

VIEWER CALL-IN LIVE
Weekdays at 8AM (ET)/5AM (PT)
and 6:30PM (ET)/3:30 PM (PT)

The C-SPAN Live Viewer Call-In program was created as a serious forum for informed public debate on national issues. Every weekday viewers get direct access to legislators, policymakers, and journalists about the issues of the day. Call-In hosts do not give opinions but are facilitators who give detailed biographical information on each guest so viewers are aware of the guests' point of view.

To find out the guests and topics of a particular program, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN's international coverage includes the broadcasting of the Prime Minister's "Question Time" from the floor of Britain's chief lawmaking body.

BRITISH POLITICS: "QUESTION TIME"
Sundays at 9PM (ET)/6PM (PT)

C-SPAN airs coverage of the British House of Commons' "Question Time" when Prime Minister John Major is questioned by members of the opposition and other parties during this regular Parliamentary procedure. Various issues in British politics are addressed in this exciting and often raucous 30 minute exchange. When Parliament is out of session, roundtable discussions and other related programming fills the same "British Politics" time slot.

To find out topics being discussed in the House of Commons or other British programming, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN airs interviews examining current activities at the Supreme Court when the High Court is in session.
The current Supreme Court Justices are shown here.

AMERICA AND THE COURTS
Saturdays at 7PM (ET)/4PM (PT)

For an in-depth perspective on the judicial branch of the government tune in to C-SPAN's "America and the Courts." This weekly series features justices, judges, judicial scholars, and journalists discussing recent cases and court procedures.

To find out the guest and topic for a particular program, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205 on Saturday mornings or check your local cable guide listings.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN's Brian Lamb interviews author Lester Thurow about his book, Head to Head: The Coming Economic Battle Among Japan, Europe, and America.

BOOKNOTES
Sundays at 8PM (ET)/5PM (PT)

C-SPAN begins its Sunday evening line-up with an hour-long discussion about the people and ideas behind the latest best non-fiction books. "Booknotes" features interviews with authors of public policy, political, and historical books, looking closely at the authors' motivations and methods.

To find out the author and book title of a particular program, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205 or check your local listings.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN's Brian Lamb conducts an in-depth, hour-long interview with Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Gen. Colin Powell.

AN AMERICAN PROFILE
(Holiday Programming)
8AM (ET)/5AM (PT), 8PM (ET)/5PM (PT)

On holidays and when Congress is in recess, C-SPAN offers "An American Profile" interviews. Prominent Americans discuss their lives and careers in these hour-long, in-depth interviews. Get to know your congressman, senator, governor or other political figure from this personal, candid discussion.

To find out who will be profiled next and when, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN's host moderates a discussion examining current issues with Paul West, of the Baltimore Sun, Stephen Green, of Copley News Service and Margaret Warner of Newsweek.

JOURNALISTS' ROUNDTABLE
Fridays at 8AM (ET)/5AM (PT)

Once a week for ninety minutes, journalists discuss the week's headlines and respond to viewer questions and comments. Tune in to hear what reporters have to say about current issues and front page news each Friday morning. "Journalists' Roundtable" re-airs on Saturdays at 9PM (ET)/6PM (PT).

For the names of guests and organizations, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN

C-SPAN's comprehensive coverage of the 1992 presidential campaign included this event during the Primary season when Gov. Bill Clinton tasted a sea urchin while campaigning in Portsmouth, NH.

ROAD TO THE WHITE HOUSE
Fridays at 5PM (ET)/2PM (PT)
Sundays at 9:30PM (ET)/6:30PM (PT)

Twice a week, C-SPAN offers its viewers a closer look at the presidential election issues and process with profiles of the candidates as they travel nationwide. C-SPAN provides unedited coverage of speeches, press conferences, caucuses and primaries from beginning to end. Behind the scenes interviews with campaign managers and media strategists give an "inside" view of the campaign machinery and strategy, including continued coverage of the transition to a new administration C-SPAN is the primary source for the 1992 presidential election.

To find out the guests or topics of a particular program, please call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205 or check your local listings.

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

C-SPAN